ASCO is an approved Public Benefit Organisation (SARS PBO Reference No. 930092287). ASCO is approved to issue Section 18A tax-deductible donation receipts effective 9 October 2026, subject to the Income Tax Act, SARS requirements and ASCO's receipt-control procedures. Receipts may be issued only for qualifying donations used solely for ASCO's approved Section 18A public benefit activities.

Updated: 27 October 2026 — SARS PBO and Section 18A approval status harmonised from the approval letter dated 26 October 2026.

The Board governs; Executive Management manages. The Founder/Founding Chairperson, Ms Busisiwe Makhosi Shandu, provides institutional oversight and does not sign, approve, initiate, co-authorise or control ASCO financial documents or transactions. Operational financial authority rests within the Board-approved delegation framework, including the Executive Director, Finance and Procurement Committee and authorised financial signatories.

1. Purpose and Scope

This procedure controls the receipt, review, acceptance, refusal, administration and closure of monetary, in-kind, restricted, conditional and sponsored donations. It complements the Donations and Refunds Policy and applies to Directors, Executive Management, employees, volunteers, representatives and any person receiving or recording a donation for ASCO.

2. Definitions

Term	Meaning
Unrestricted donation	A donation available for ASCO's lawful objectives without a project-specific restriction.
Restricted donation	A donation accepted in writing for a defined programme, project, place, beneficiary group or purpose.
Conditional donation	A donation dependent on conditions that must be assessed and approved before acceptance.
Gift administrator	The person assigned by the Executive Director to coordinate documents, register entries and acknowledgement.
High-risk donation	A donation presenting elevated legal, source-of-funds, sanctions, corruption, reputational, operational or donor-influence risk.

3. Acceptance Principles

- ASCO accepts only lawful donations consistent with its public-benefit objects, independence, dignity, safeguarding duties and approved policies.
- No donor obtains control over ASCO governance, programme decisions, beneficiaries, employment decisions or public positions merely because they donate.
- ASCO does not accept revocable donations or conditions that provide an improper direct or indirect benefit to the donor or a connected person.
- ASCO does not represent ordinary donations as Section 18A tax-deductible donations.
- Cash handling is exceptional; electronic payment is preferred and any cash must be counted, receipted, secured and deposited promptly.

5. Procedure

1. Receive the offer or payment and assign a provisional donation reference.
2. Identify the donor and obtain proportionate source and purpose information.
3. Check restrictions, conflicts, donor influence, reputational indicators and payment consistency.
4. Classify risk and obtain the required approval before acceptance or expenditure.
5. Record the donation in the Donation Register and link all supporting documents.
6. Issue an ordinary acknowledgement only after receipt is verified; do not issue a Section 18A receipt before approval.
7. Allocate, account for, reconcile and report the donation under the relevant procedure.
8. If rejected or returned, document the reason, authorisation, payment trail and final disposition.

6. Refusal and Return Criteria

- Illegal, suspected proceeds of crime, terrorism-financing concern or unexplained third-party funds.
- Donor seeks improper control, personal benefit, political influence or beneficiary selection inconsistent with ASCO principles.
- Conditions conflict with ASCO's objects, safeguarding, non-discrimination, independence or law.

- Donation cannot be administered, valued, stored, insured, transported or reported responsibly.
- The donor cannot provide information proportionate to the risk after a reasonable request.

7. Records, Monitoring and Exceptions

The Gift Administrator maintains the file. The Executive Director reviews open items monthly. The Finance and Procurement Committee reviews reconciliations, restricted funds, refusals, refunds and medium/high-risk donations quarterly and reports material matters to the Board. Any exception requires written reasons, risk controls and approval at the level that would have approved the underlying donation.

8. Legal and Related References

This procedure is informed by the Income Tax Act requirements for PBOs and Section 18A approvals, the Companies Act 71 of 2008, POPIA, applicable anti-fraud and anti-corruption obligations, and the official SARS PBO guidance and checklist.
