ASCO is a South African Non-Profit Company registered under CIPC number 2026/521895/08, with SARS income tax reference 9322812265, and its public address at 49 Rif Road, Manor Gardens, Durban, KwaZulu-Natal, 4001. ASCO is an approved Public Benefit Organisation (SARS PBO Reference No. 930092287). ASCO is approved to issue Section 18A tax-deductible donation receipts effective 9 October 2026, subject to the Income Tax Act, SARS requirements and ASCO's receipt-control procedures. Receipts may be issued only for qualifying donations used solely for ASCO's approved Section 18A public benefit activities.

Updated: 27 October 2026 — SARS PBO and Section 18A approval status harmonised from the approval letter dated 26 October 2026.

The Board governs; Executive Management manages. The Founder/Founding Chairperson, Ms Busisiwe Makhosi Shandu, provides institutional oversight and does not sign, approve, initiate, co-authorise or control ASCO financial documents or transactions. Operational financial authority rests within the Board-approved delegation framework, including the Executive Director, Finance and Procurement Committee and authorised financial signatories.

This proportionate procedure helps ASCO identify and manage fraud, corruption, money-laundering, terrorist-financing, sanctions, prohibited-party, conflict-of-interest, reputational and improper-influence risks without treating ASCO as a bank or financial institution.

2. Minimum Due Diligence

- Individuals: name, contact details, country where relevant, purpose and source information proportionate to risk.
- Companies and organisations: legal name, registration or public identity information where relevant, authorised representative, beneficial ownership or controlling persons where relevant, purpose and source information.
- Material or restricted gifts: written agreement, source-of-funds/source-of-assets declaration, restrictions, valuation and approval.
- International gifts: country, payment route, intermediary, purpose and sanctions/restricted-party screening where legally applicable.

3. Risk Factors

- Unusual, complex or unexplained payment route; third-party payer; cash or foreign currency without clear rationale.
- Donor refuses reasonable identification or source information.
- PEP, sanctions or restricted-party indicator where legally applicable.
- Adverse information involving fraud, corruption, human-rights abuse, exploitation or reputational harm.
- Demand for secrecy, improper influence, exclusive access, beneficiary selection or governance rights.
- Gift inconsistent with donor profile, stated purpose or the proposed programme.

4. Risk Levels and Escalation

Level	Decision rule	Control	Escalation

5. Procedure

1. Open a due-diligence file linked to the donation reference.
2. Collect proportionate documents and record what was reviewed.
3. Perform conflict, adverse-information and restricted-party checks where appropriate.
4. Assess source, purpose, conditions and donor influence.
5. Document risk rating, rationale, reviewer and approval.
6. Do not use or acknowledge a high-risk donation until resolved.
7. Monitor material donors and restrictions throughout the relationship.
8. Escalate suspicious conduct through the Safeguarding and Complaints Policy, Board channels or competent authorities as appropriate.

6. Confidentiality and Data Protection

Due-diligence records are confidential, access-controlled and used only for lawful organisational, regulatory, donor and risk purposes. Do not collect excessive information. Process personal information consistently with the Privacy and POPIA Notice and PAIA Manual.

7. Records and Review

The Gift Administrator maintains the assessment; the Executive Director reviews medium-risk files; the Finance and Procurement Committee reviews quarterly; the Board reviews high-risk matters and material trends. Retain the assessment and decision trail with the donation record.

8. References

This procedure is risk-based and should be read with applicable South African law, SARS guidance, ASCO's Donations and Refunds Policy, Safeguarding and Complaints Policy, Privacy and POPIA Notice, and Delegation of Authority and Financial Management Policy.
