The proposed project

Project title
Community Green Action and Resilience Hubs

Implementation period
Proposed 6–12 month pilot, with final schedule agreed after eligibility, baseline and permissions are confirmed.

Location
A South African rural or semi-urban community to be selected after ASCO's documented needs assessment, with preference for a site where Nedbank's green-economy priorities (waste/recycling, water, regenerative food production or environmental restoration) and local authority/community permissions can be demonstrated.

Target beneficiaries
Proposed: approximately 150-250 directly participating residents, prioritising youth, women and people with disabilities, plus surrounding households and community institutions benefiting indirectly; final numbers and demographic profile to be established by baseline assessment.

Proposed outputs and targets

The following are proposed planning targets, not completed results. Final targets should be agreed with the company after baseline assessment, budget confirmation and any required stakeholder permissions.

- Proposed: complete one participatory baseline, site risk assessment and implementation plan before field activity begins.
- Proposed: establish or restore one community environmental-action site and complete at least 4 documented action days during the grant period.
- Proposed: train at least 40 local participants in environmental stewardship, waste separation/recycling, water conservation and/or regenerative food practices, with attendance and pre/post knowledge records.
- Proposed: divert or responsibly process at least 2,000 kg of recoverable waste, or use an alternative verified environmental metric agreed at inception.
- Proposed: plant and maintain at least 500 locally appropriate trees or food-producing plants, subject to ecological and landowner approval, with a 6-month survival/maintenance check.
- Proposed: produce quarterly activity, expenditure and outcome reports, a beneficiary register, photographic/geotagged evidence where appropriate, and a final impact report against agreed indicators.

Expected outcomes

- Improved community participation and practical public-benefit action in the selected location.
- Improved access to relevant learning, environmental, inclusion, humanitarian or youth-development support, depending on the project design.
- Documented implementation evidence, beneficiary participation and lessons for continuation or scale-up.
- Clear accountability through expenditure records, activity updates, monitoring information and a close-out report.

Why this matters

The proposed intervention responds to a community-development need through the sequence community need → practical intervention → measurable result. The final baseline will verify the specific need, beneficiary profile, site conditions, permissions and appropriate indicators before implementation.

ASCO will avoid overstating the problem or claiming results in advance. Where waste, participation, learning, environmental condition, referrals or other outputs are measurable, ASCO will use simple evidence tools such as attendance registers, baseline/endline checks, activity logs, photographs with consent, beneficiary feedback and expenditure records.

> Evidence discipline: All numbers in this proposal are either company-reported context from official sources or clearly labelled ASCO planning targets. No completed result, partnership or funding commitment is claimed.

Why Nedbank Foundation / Nedbank Corporate Social Investment?

ASCO is approved to issue Section 18A receipts effective 9 October 2026. Receipts may be issued only for qualifying donations used solely for the approved Section 18A activities: human rights and democracy, and family stability.

Verified company context

- Nedbank's official Sustainable Development Framework says sustainable development finance, support for the transition to a net-zero economy and financial inclusion are core focus areas, enabled in part by CSI.
- Nedbank's 2024 Society Report describes its Green Economy Strategy as focusing on renewable energy, regenerative agriculture, waste and recycling, and water and sanitation; it emphasises sustainable livelihoods and scalable economic ecosystems, especially for women, youth and people with disabilities in rural and semi-urban areas.
- The 2024 Society Report reports CSI spend categories including green economy and community development, but does not establish that a particular grant is available to ASCO or that the Foundation has committed to this proposal.
- Nedbank's May 2025 official announcement describes a South Africa-focused Green Economy Social Impact Strategy addressing agriculture, energy, water and waste, with measurable environmental and social impact, skills and job creation as stated objectives.
- The official CSI funding form requests organisational details including PBO/NPO information, project description and rationale, quantified objectives and timelines, monitoring and evaluation, risks, beneficiary demographics, detailed budget, other donors and supporting records.
- The available official funding form is dated November 2015; a current, publicly confirmed Foundation application window or eligibility policy was not verified.

Company facts are drawn from official sources reviewed for this proposal. They describe public priorities or reported company activity; they are not promises of funding to ASCO.

Initial contact route

No current official Nedbank Foundation application/contact route was verified. The only directly located official route is the Nedbank CSI Funding Application Form (November 2015): https://nedbank.co.za/content/dam/nedbank/site-assets/AboutUs/CSI/Supporting_Documents/Nedbank%20CSI%20Funding%20Application%20Form%20November%202015.pdf. - ASCO is approved to issue Section 18A receipts effective 9 October 2026. Receipts may be issued only for qualifying donations used solely for the approved Section 18A activities: human rights and democracy, and family stability.
- The current funding cycle, eligible applicant classes, maximum grant, geographic restrictions, restricted costs and decision timeline were not found in a current official source.
- The 2015 form requests extensive attachments, including audited financial statements, annual report, budget, project budget, reference letter, registration certificates, constitution, donor contacts and quotations; confirm whether these requirements remain current.
- No completed ASCO results, existing Nedbank partnership, Foundation commitment or guaranteed funding should be claimed.

These cautions are included to prevent overstatement. They should be resolved with the company before ASCO treats the proposal as eligible or finalises a submission budget.
